

Help us keep in touch!

While COPE 378 is allowed to communicate with you via your Accenture email addresses, certain types of communication are not allowed by the Employer. In addition, as we enter bargaining, some of our communications with members might be somewhat sensitive.

It is also possible for Accenture to block our email communications with you.

For these reasons, please give us a non-work email address so that we can continue to keep in touch with you.
